

Joanna Duke
411 N. Central Ave., Suite 450
Phoenix, AZ 85004
(602)-496-0449
joanna.duke@asu.edu

EDUCATION

The University of Texas at Arlington
School of Urban and Public Affairs
Ph.D., Urban and Public Administration, completed August 2006 (conferred December)
Dissertation: “Invasion of the Poor”: Beliefs and Perceptions of the Receiving Community
Supervising Professor: Professor Edith Barrett

Master of Public Administration
The University of Texas at Arlington, May 2002

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology
The University of Texas at Austin, May 2000
Honors thesis: The Evaluation of the Juvenile Offenders Substance Abuse Treatment Services

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

Urban Governance and Policy
Research methods
Social Welfare Policy
Housing Policy

WORK EXPERIENCE

Arizona State University, School of Public Affairs
Assistant Professor, 2006-present

The University of Texas at Arlington, School of Urban and Public Affairs
Foundations of Urban Research and Analysis, 2003-2005
Instructor

Guest lecturer on “Obstacles to Effective Policy Making” for Social Policy Formation, spring 2005

Guest lecturer on “Decision-making in Public Organizations” for Organizational Theory and Development, fall 2003

The University of Texas at Arlington, Department of Criminal Justice and Criminology

Statistics for Criminology, summer 2004

Instructor

WORKING PAPERS AND RESEARCH PROJECTS

Duke, J. "Indicators of Opposition to Public Housing by Individuals from the Receiving Community."

Duke, J. "Housing Mobility Programs: Increasing Public Housing Residents' Right to the City?"

Duke, J and Barrett, E. "Sense of Community in Relocated Public Housing Residents' Neighborhoods."

Governance and Diversity: Strategies for Promoting Economic, Racial and Social Integration in Metropolitan Phoenix (paper proposed for Urban Affairs Association, 2007)

Public Administrators and Immigration (A survey of Southwest administrators who will gather to discuss how immigration policy impacts their lives)

Teaching the concept of governance and citizenship in a time of turmoil (Proposed for Teaching PA conference, 2007)

RESEARCH EXPERIENCE

University of Texas at Arlington, School of Urban and Public Affairs, Research Associate, summer and fall 2005. Survey development, literature reviews, focus groups and in-person interviews for the Evaluation of the Ripley Arnold Public Housing Relocation

Dallas Fair Housing Office, Consultant, summer and fall 2004. Coordinated and supervised telephone surveys of housing advocates, real estate professionals and Dallas public officials and interpreted data for an impediment analysis report

The University of Texas at Arlington, School of Urban and Public Affairs, Graduate Research Assistant, 2000-2004. Experience writing and editing annual reports, project reports, land and strategic plans, conducting literature reviews and policy research for the Center for Economic Development Research, Education and Service and the Center for International Research, Education and Development

INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE

University Partnership Grant between the University of Texas at Arlington and the University of Central Serbia, Senior Graduate Associate in Residence, summer 2003. Facilitated the opening of a center for training public managers, developed materials for the training modules, created a network of city officials, faculty members and leaders in the NGO community, marketed the certificate program to prospective participants and assisted trainers in developing materials and techniques.

University Partnership Grant between the University of Texas at Arlington and Kharkiv Sate Academy for Municipal Economy, Graduate Research Assistant, fall 2000-spring 2003. Responsible for organizing meetings, housing and other arrangements for international visitors and organizing international symposiums.

SELECTED PROJECTS AND PUBLICATIONS

Duke, J. and Wyman, S. (2005). Final Report for the Department of State University Partnership Grant between the University of Texas at Arlington and the University of Kragujevac.

Strategies for the Far Greater Northside of Fort Worth (2002), prepared for the Center for Economic Development, Research and Service (CEDRAS), School of Urban and Public Affairs.

Economic Development of Quanah, Texas, (2002), prepared for the Center for Economic Development, Research and Service (CEDRAS), School of Urban and Public Affairs.

Duke, J., Nickel, P.M. and Skiles-duToit, S. (2001). "University Partnership," Public Administration Times, Vol. 24, No. 2.

SELECTED PRESENTATIONS

Duke, J. (2006). "Indicators of Opposition to Public Housing by Receiving Communities." Paper presented at the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning conference, Fort Worth, Texas.

Duke, J. (2006). "The Ghost of Ripley Arnold": Sense of Community in Relocated Public Housing Residents' Neighborhoods. Presented at ASU's School of Public Affairs' Research Colloquium.

Duke, J. (2006). "Invasion of the Poor": Beliefs and Perceptions of the Receiving Community." Paper presented at Urban Affairs Association, Montreal.

Duke, J. (2005) "Deconcentrating Poverty: Perceptions of the Receiving Community." Presented paper at Urban Affairs Association, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Nickel, P.M, Duke, J., Cole, R and Wyman, S. (2002). "Public Managers Perceptions of On-line MPA Degrees." Presented paper at National Association for Schools of Public Administration and Affairs (NASPAA), Los Angeles, CA.

WORKSHOPS AND CERTIFICATIONS

Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning Writing Workshop, Berkeley, CA.
August, 2006

Graduate Non-Profit Management Certificate, May 2002, University of Texas at Arlington

Basic Course in Mediation, May 2005, Lacefield and Associates

ACADEMIC SERVICE AND COMMUNITY OUTREACH

Urban and Metropolitan Studies Committee, 2006-present

Executive Education Steering Committee, 2006-present

UTA Student Search Team Committee, 2001-2005

Volunteer mediator for the Tarrant Count Dispute Resolution Center

Reviewed article for the International Journal of Public Administration, fall 2003

Committee to Review the Dean, Summer 02

Forging Regional Alliance for Healthier Communities: An Overview from the 77th Texas Legislative Session: Laws Affecting Mental Health Professionals, Oct 2001

Data Analyst/Organizer for Tarrant County Health and Human Services, summer, 2000

I&R Specialist, United Way, Austin, TX, 1999-2000

Mentor for Texas Youth Commission, Austin, TX, 1998

MEMBERSHIPS AND AWARDS

University Scholar, University of Texas at Arlington

Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society

Graduate Research Assistantships during graduate work at UTA

Special Honors in Psychology, University of Texas at Austin

Pi Chi Honor Society

American Society for Public Administration (ASPA)

Urban Affairs Association (UAA)

OTHER SKILLS

SPSS

Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, Excel and Publisher

Windows 95, 98, 2000, XP

Working knowledge of French

