Grant and Contract Experience

Co-Principal Investigator (with C. Bennett). Comprehensive Analysis of a Study on the Military and Civilian Criminal Justice System. Office of Naval Research, 1974-1975.

Co-Principal Investigator (with M. Lindell). Psychological Consequences of Natural Disasters for Victims. Department of Health, Education and Welfare (Biomedical Grant), 1977-1978.

Principal Investigator. Community Conflict and the Siting of Hazardous Facilities: The Role of Social Movements and Community Action Groups, U.S. Department of Energy, 1977-1979.

Principal Investigator. Factors Affecting the Design and Implementation of Community Disaster Evacuation Plans. National Science Foundation, 1978-1980.

Principal Investigator. Human Response to the Eruptions of Mt. St. Helens Volcano. National Science Foundation, 1980.

Principal Investigator. Review and Application of Social Science Knowledge of Evacuation Behavior to Crisis Relocation Planning. Defense Civil Preparedness Agency, 1978-1980.

Principal Investigator. Emergency Situation and Guard Force Motivation and Performance. Office of Institutional Liaison and Communications, U.S. Department of Energy, 1980.

Principal Investigator. Selective Review of Security Clearance and Human Reliability Procedures in Government and Private Facilities: Protecting Against Insider Threats, Sandia Laboratories (U.S. Department of Energy), 1978-1979.

Principal Investigator. Modifying Security Clearance Criteria to Screen Against Insider Threats. Office of Safeguards and Security, U.S. Department of Energy, 1980-1981.

Principal Investigator. Application of Human Disaster Response Knowledge to Federal Emergency Management Agency Programs. Federal Emergency Management Agency, 1980-1982.

- Co-Principal Investigator (with H. Schilling). Managing Emergency Response in the Transportation of Radioactive Materials. Sandia Laboratories (U.S. Department of Energy), 1981-1982.
- Principal Investigator. Minority Citizen Warning Response and Involvement in Community Hazard Planning. National Science Foundation, 1981-1983.
- Principal Investigator. Psychological Stress in Response to Technological Hazards. Mitre Corporation (U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission), 1982.
- Principal Investigator. Citizen Adoption of Mitigation Measures in Multiple Impact Disasters. National Science Foundation, 1982-86.
- Principal Investigator. Volcano Hazard Management in the United States and Japan. National Science Foundation, 1982-1986.
- Principal Investigator. Evaluation of Volcano Hazard Information at Mt. Shasta. U.S. Geological Survey, 1988.
- Sociologist. Hazardous Materials in the Northridge Earthquake. (M.K. Lindell, Principal Investigator). National Science Foundation, 1994-1995.
- Sociologist. Hospital Evacuation in the Northridge Earthquake. (R.A. Olson, Principal Investigator). National Science Foundation, 1995-1996.
- Sociologist. Adoptions of Earthquake Hazard Adjustments by Households and Complex Organizations. (M.K. Lindell, Principal Investigator). National Science Foundation, 1996-2000.

Research and Teaching Specialities

Emergency Management and Planning: Natural Disasters (earthquakes, volcanoes, floods, drought, wildfire), Technological Disasters (nuclear power plants, hazardous chemicals), Terrorism.

Research Methods and Statistics: Research Design, Philosophy of Science, Program Evaluation, Measurement and Scaling, General Linear Model Statistics, Survey Research, and Experimental and Quasi-Experimental Designs.

Public Administration and Industrial Sociology: Public Personnel Administration, Public Management, Organizational Psychology.

Collective Behavior and Social Movements: Social System Stress.

Social Psychology: Human Behavior in Disasters, Community Psychology, Attitudes and Behavior.
