

Fall 2009 Presentations

When

Friday, September 4, 2009 - 4:00-5:00pm

Who and What

Kerry Smith, W.P. Carey School of Business faculty
“Can Sunstein’s Behavioral Economics Inform the Practice of Benefit Cost Analysis?”

Friday, September 25, 2009 - 4:00-5:00pm

Laura R. Peck, School of Public Affairs faculty
“The Impact of U.S. Social Policy: Analysis of Household Well-being across the 50 States, with Lessons on Methods”

Friday, October 23, 2009 - 4:00-5:00pm

Gill R. Hickman, Professor, Jepson School of Leadership, University of Richmond
“Invisible Leadership”

Friday, November 13, 2009 - 4:00-5:00pm

Jennifer Glick, Center for Population Dynamics and School of Social and Family Dynamics faculty “Local Responses to Shifting Approaches to Immigration and Economic Change”

Friday, December 4, 2009 - 4:00-5:00pm

Thomas Catlaw, School of Public Affairs faculty, and Kelly Campbell Rawlings, Northern Arizona University Department of Politics & International Affairs faculty “‘Democracy as a Way of Life?’ Rethinking the Practices of Self-Government”

Spring 2010 Presentations

When

Friday, January 22, 2010 - 4:00-5:00pm

Who and What

O.C. McSwite (Cynthia McSwain and Orion White), Professors Emeriti, George Washington University, Virginia Tech “#21stcenturypublicbureaucracy”

Friday, February 5, 2010 - 4:00-5:00pm

Center for Policy Informatics Keynote Address
SPECIAL LOCATION: Decision Theater, ASU Tempe

Friday, March 5, 2010 - 4:00-5:00pm

Jeffrey Chapman, School of Public Affairs faculty
Title TBA

Friday, March 26, 2010 - 4:00-5:00pm

Billie Sandberg, School of Public Affairs doctoral candidate
“(Re)constructing the Descent: A Foucauldian Analysis of the Nonprofit Sector’s ‘Origin Stories’”

Friday, April 23, 2010 - 4:00-5:00pm

Edgar Ramirez Delacruz and Joanna Lucio, School of Public Affairs faculty “Networking Practices for the Provision of Affordable Housing in Phoenix”

Locations

All presentations take place at ASU’s Downtown Phoenix campus, University Center, 411 North Central Avenue, Phoenix, Room 822A, with the exception of the February 5, 2010 presentation, which will be at the Decision Theater, 21 East 6th Street, Suite 126A, at the Brickyard on the ASU Tempe campus.

The Fine Print

Attendance is open, and no RSVPs are required. Titles/topics are subject to change. Direct questions to Evie Selberg (evie.selberg@asu.edu). For reminders and updates, please subscribe to the ASU SPAN listserv (<http://spa.asu.edu/Resources/Listsev.htm>). updated 8/18/09