

Spring Intern Position

Arizona Governor's Office of Strategic Planning and Budgeting

Governor Hobbs' administration is seeking highly motivated interns who are eager to learn about State budgeting and strategic planning:

- Dates: January - May (flexible)
- Duration: 12 - 15 weeks (flexible)
- Schedule: 20 - 40 hours per week
- Location: In-Person, Hybrid, and Virtual options available
- Compensation: Hourly rate of $16.50 and potential to earn course credit

Experiences Include:

- Gain insights into the inner workings of the State's budget
- Analyze the fiscal impact of legislation
- See behind-the-scenes of the budget negotiation process
- Research various grants and federal resources
- Engage in the pursuance of a grant and other funding opportunities
- Monitor and oversee grants and other funds awarded to the State
- Complete and present a capstone project(s)
- Capitalize on professional development opportunities within our office and beyond

Strong Candidates Have:

- Strong quantitative reasoning skills
- High attention to detail and quality
- Ability to communicate clearly and professionally
- Thrives in a high-energy, fast-paced, professional environment
- Display superior critical-thinking ability
- Adept at working on various projects in a collaborative setting

The Details:

- Application deadline and further information at <https://azospb.gov/Internships.html>
- Direct any questions to cdudas@az.gov
- Applications should be sent to ospbapps@az.gov

Apply today! - Due November 2nd